

INVICTUS MD STRATEGIES CORP.

INTERNAL EMPLOYEE ALERT POLICY

Adopted by the Board of Directors on February 2, 2015

Amended, Restated and adopted by the Board on April 4, 2018

OBJECTIVE AND SCOPE

Invictus MD Strategies Corp. is committed to the highest standards of openness, honesty and accountability that its various stakeholders are entitled to expect.

As a result, Invictus MD Strategies Corp. and its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively “the Corporation”) want to know about any violation to its Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and any and all dishonest, fraudulent or unacceptable behavior, conduct or practices committed by the Corporation’s officers, employees and former officers or employees regarding accounting matters generally, internal accounting and/or controls, the conduct of the audit of its financial accounts and statements or related matters, or other “non-financial” matters, which, if disclosed, could reasonably be expected to raise concerns regarding the integrity, ethics or bona fides of the Corporation (a “Questionable Event”) and expects its employees (which includes officers), consultants, former employees and former consultants (collectively the “Employee or the “Employees”) to feel confident about disclosing and reporting on any concerns they may have about any Questionable Event they become aware of.

In accordance with the Corporation’s commitment set out above, this Internal Employee Alert Policy is meant to provide a formal yet simple procedure to facilitate the receipt, retention, review and resolution of complaints, denunciations or warnings, given in any form by any Employee of the Corporation, regarding a Questionable Event.

BACKGROUND AND EMPLOYEE ALERT PROCEDURES

Employees, who are often the first ones to realize that there may be something seriously wrong within a corporation, may, however, not express or report their concerns because they feel that speaking up would be disloyal to their colleagues or to the Corporation or may even jeopardize their position in, or employment by, the Corporation. Even when an Employee does raise or report any suspicions, colleagues or superiors of such Employee may decide to ignore his or her concerns so raised rather than address same or report through higher channels what might ultimately turn out to be just a suspicion of fraudulent or wrongful practices.

The Corporation expects Employees who have reasonable grounds for believing that there is occurring, or has occurred, a Questionable Event within the Corporation to come forward and voice those concerns responsibly.

The Policy is intended to encourage and enable Employees to voice their concerns regarding any Questionable Event within the Corporation rather than ignoring them or, ultimately, feeling compelled to deal with the Questionable Event outside the Corporation due to a lack of the availability of the mechanism provided hereunder.

Any Employee who finds his or her concerns about a Questionable Event not satisfactorily addressed by his or her immediate supervisor (or higher-ranking persons) or who feels that the seriousness and sensitivity of the issues or people involved require that the reporting of such Questionable Event should neither be addressed to the attention of his or her immediate supervisor nor follow the normal corporate reporting channels, should contact the Corporation's Audit Committee Chairman by any of the following methods:

Mail: Chairman, Audit Committee
Invictus MD Strategies Corp.
c/o 10th Floor, 595 Howe Street
Vancouver, British Columbia
Canada V6C 2T5

E-mail: auditcommitteechair@invictus-md.com

SAFEGUARDS AGAINST RETALIATION, HARASSMENT OR VICTIMIZATION

The Corporation understands and acknowledges that one's decision to report a Questionable Event can be a difficult one to make. Employees who raise serious concerns should have nothing to fear. Therefore, the Corporation shall not tolerate any retaliation, harassment or victimization (including informal pressures) and shall take appropriate action to protect employees who raise any concerns under this Policy in good faith (a "Concerned Employee").

CONFIDENTIALITY

All expression of concerns or reports on Questionable Events within the Corporation, filed with the Audit Committee Chairman pursuant to this Policy, will proceed internally on a confidential basis.

ANONYMOUS ALLEGATIONS

Expressions of serious concerns or reports on Questionable Events within the Corporation filed with the Audit Committee Chairman on an anonymous basis will also be treated appropriately.

UNTRUE ALLEGATIONS

In the event that, in good faith, a Concerned Employee reports a Questionable Event that is not confirmed by subsequent investigation or otherwise, no action shall be taken against such Concerned Employee. Conversely, in the event a Concerned Employee reports a Questionable Event for frivolous or malicious purposes or for his or her personal gain, the appropriate disciplinary or legal action will be taken against such Concerned Employee, including possible dismissal for cause.

HOW TO RAISE A CONCERN

Concerns may be raised with the Audit Committee Chairman verbally or in writing (including by e-mail).

Concerned Employees who wish to make a written report are asked to provide:

- The background and history of the Questionable Event (giving relevant dates);
- The reasons prompting the particular concern about the situation, and
- The extent to which the Concerned Employee has personally witnessed or experienced the Questionable Event (providing documented evidence where possible).

RECORDS AND REPORTING

The Audit Committee Chairman will maintain a record of concerns raised and the outcome (but in a form which does not endanger the confidentiality of a Concerned Employee's identity where necessary) and will report, as necessary, to management and/or the Independent Directors of the Board of the Corporation, having regard to the nature of the Questionable Event raised and whether or not it related to the financial position and/or financial statement and/or disclosures of the Corporation or to other "non-financial" matters related to the Corporation.

INVESTIGATION

The Chairman of the Audit Committee shall determine the steps and procedures to be taken to address the concern appropriately and whether an investigation is appropriate and, if so, what form such investigation should take, as well as other parameters (for example whether external investigators should be employed, the timing of such investigation and other such matters as are deemed appropriate in the circumstances).

Except, of course in the case of anonymous allegations, the Concerned Employee will be informed of the outcome of any investigation and/or any treatment of his or her claim or notice.